To Whom It May Concern,

Please accept this distinguished letter of recommendation for Arunjeet Rehal, who has been an exemplary student in his Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) training, including disciplines such as Jiu Jitsu, Tae Kwon Do (which he received his black belt), Muay Thai, and Kickboxing. Arunjeet's dedication to his training is truly commendable, and he consistently demonstrates a high level of commitment and humility.

Arunjeet takes his training very seriously, always striving to improve his skills and techniques. Despite his impressive abilities, he remains a very humble student, showing great respect for his coaches and teammates. He is always open to feedback and takes it positively, using it as an opportunity to grow and enhance his performance.

Arunjeet's respect for the various foundations of Mixed Martial Arts is evident in his approach to training. He not only seeks to improve his athletic skill set but also applies the principles of discipline, respect, and perseverance in his everyday life. This holistic approach to MMA has made him a well-rounded individual, both inside and outside the training environment.

Arunjeet's positive attitude, strong work ethic, and respectful demeanor make him a valuable member of our MMA community. I have no doubt that he will continue to excel in his martial arts journey and in all other aspects of his life.

Sincerely,

Dominique Robinson
